Garden Party at James Castle's.

One of the chief social events of the week was the garden party that Mrs. Harold Castle gave Monday afternoon. The hours were from 4 to 6, and Monday was an ideal day for such an entertainment. Mrs. Harold Castle, her mother, Mrs. C. Hedenam, and Mrs. Alan White received under the trees on the lawn toward the sea. Mrs. Castle looked very handsome in Copenhagen blue satin, with a large bat in lighter shade of blue covered with plumes. Mrs. Hedenam was clad in a pale lavender pina silk over mauve satin. Mrs. White wore a French lingerie with a large picture hat. Many smart and elaborate toilettes were worn, most of them being made of summer fabrics inserted with lace and profusely trimmed. A number of the guests wore large picture hats, which were extremely becoming. Mrs. Gustav Schaefer entered during the afternoon, and was ably assisted by a bevy of pretty girls. Mrs. Gustav Schaefer looked beautiful in a chiffon robe over rose colored satin. The train was powdered with roses. A large imported black picture hat completed this costume. Miss Margaret Castle poured tea and Miss Irene Fisher served coffee. The tables from which the tea and coffee were served were placed underneath the palms. These tables were artistically decorated with American Beauty roses. Miss Margaret Castle looked particularly stunning on this occasion in a draped blue chiffon over blue satin, a blue plumed hat was worn. Miss Irene Fisher looked extremely well in a white lingerie heavily embroidered, a black hat trimmed with a willow plume enhanced the beauty of this toilette. Among those who enjoyed Mrs. Harold Castle's hospitality were Mesdames E. Faxon Bishop, Edward Hedenam, Arthur Brown, Arthur Wilder, Harold Giffard, Lawrence Judd, Harold Dillingham, C. Davies, Day Sanford B. Doty, Gustav Schaefer, Dammen, Focke, Ivers, Sidney Ballou, Ballentyne; Misses Marie Ballentyne, Juliette Atherton, Benton, Edward, Jessie Irwin, Dorothy Wood, de Breteville, Kopke, Irene Fisher, Margaret Castle, Vera Damon, Ferrier, Wilhelmina Tenney, H. ## Miss Harriet Young's Tea.

Mrs. George Cleveland Bowen was the complimented guest at a tea given by Miss Harriet Young at her Nuuanu Valley home. The decorations of La France roses were exquisitely done. The room was filled in the drawing room. This room was filled with choice palms and maidenhair fern. Bowls of Bohemian and cut glass were artistically arranged on inlaid cabinets and teak wood tables. The keynote of the occasion was informality. Mrs. Bowen looked a picture in a white lingerie dress and large black hat trimmed with lace and red roses. Miss Young looked extremely pretty in a hand embroidered dress. Among those present were Mrs. George Cleveland Bowen, Misses Harriet Young, Constance Restarick, Violet Makee, Sara Lucas, Agnes Wickstrom, Edith Meyers, Ethel Spalding, Cordelia Gilman, Irma Ballentyne, Dorothy Wood, Julia Peabody, Hazel Hoffmann, Florence Hoffmann, Eleanor Waterhouse, Margaret Waterhouse, Daisy Gras, Ida Kopke, Alice Cooper, Marie Ballentyne, Genevieve Langton, Lydia McStockier, Barbara Holdsworth, Blair, Mrs. Lucas, Fitz-

Mr. and Mrs. Dowsett's Dancing Party

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dowsett entertained at a dancing party on Monday evening in honor of Miss Wilhelmina Tenney. This affair was a complete surprise to the guest of honor. Miss Tenney had been invited up to formally spend the evening. On entering the drawing room the electric lights were turned on and about forty of her friends were there to greet her. The handsome home of the Dowsets was decorated in roses, palms and numerous baskets of maidenhair fern. This is an ideal house for dancing, having large rooms and commodious halls. Kurt's Orchestra was concealed behind a tropical screen of greenery and roses, and the young people enjoyed the light fantastic until late hour. Supper was served at small tables at eleven o'clock. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dowsett, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Manelle, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Violet Makee, Miss Alice Macfarlane, Miss Lady Macfarlane, Miss Ida Kopke, Miss Miss Berger, Miss Elsa Rongos, Miss Anna Graham, Miss Ethel Spalding, Miss Vera Damon, Miss Francis Ferrier, Miss Sara Lucas, Miss Hattie Lucas, Miss Helen Gervin, Mr. Herbert Dowsett, Mr. Guy Macfarlane, Mr. Walter Rycroft, Mr. Allan Robinson, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. Arthur Mackintosh, Mr. Walter Kendall, Mr. Robert McCollister, Mr. Robert Thompson, Mr. George Fuller, Mr. Samuel Walker, Mr. Bert Clark, Mr. Gifford Whitney, and others.

Wednesday Card Club.

Mrs. Arthur Marx, wife of Captain Marx of the U. S. M. C., entertained delightfully Wednesday afternoon in honor of the Fortnightly Card Club, to which she belongs. With the exception of Mrs. Lane, who acted as a substitute, only members of the club were present. Tables were arranged on the large mauka land, and as the afternoon was warm it proved a delightful arrangement for this veranda is always swept by either a trade wind or a southerly breeze. Mrs. Marx is an admirable hostess. Wednesday the sixteen guests that were present were enthusiastic over the afternoon's entertainment. Mrs. Smith of Fort Shafter won the first prize, a beautiful center-piece. Mrs. Turner of Fort Ruger was awarded the second prize, a set of hand-made doilies. Shortly after the prizes were awarded delicious refreshments were served at small tables ornamented with carnations and maidenhair fern. During the afternoon a cooling punch was served. GOOD FOR THE APPETITE*

Everybody knows that Calamus Root, Gentian Root and Aconite Root are excellent tonics—very beneficial to the stomach.

They are all contained in BITTERMEAL in just the right proportions to make "Good Digestion Wait on Appetite and Health on Toil."

The taste is slightly bitter, yet bitter-sweet and agreeable.
